Serial No.

The work connected with the preparation of the State Administration Report for the year 1948-49 has been completed and copies of the Report with appendices, index and the synopsis have been printed [redacted] and have been distributed.

2) The preliminary portion of the work relating to the collection of materials for the Report took sometime. Timely and prompt reminders (in some cases nine to 10 times) had to be sent requesting the expeditious despatch of the departmental reports and several personal calls were also made in some cases in order to hasten the work. In spite of all these, some reports were received inordinately late (the delay being more than 8 months beyond the scheduled date). Further, the Press too could not, owing to heavy rush of work and other reasons, attend exclusively to this item of work. Every attempt, was, however, made to bring out the Report with the least possible delay. In all, 92 Reports were dealt with as against 72 last year.

3) I beg to state that the work of drafting and compiling the Report on the basis of the several reports received from the various Departments was attended to by me and the staff consisting of a First Division Clerk ( Sri T. Akkappaiya) and a Steno-typist (Sri G. Raphael). Each one of the Section had to work not only overtime on certain office days but also work on holidays in order to get through the work as expeditiously as possible.

4) The checking of facts and figures, passing of the proofs to the Press after corrections several times and summarising and expanding wherever necessary have entailed heavy and responsible work daily, and apart from the two officials, I have devoted a few hours daily ~~and apart from the~~ to this work in addition to my normal items of work. In addition to the Report, a synopsis for the use of the Press has also been issued. A few new Reports have been included this year the number of pages being 251 as against 216 last year.

5) Last year the two officials Sri T. Akkappaiya and Mr. G. Raphael were given an allowance of Rs.80/- and Rs.70/- respectively while the Publicity Officer (Now P.I.O) was given a lumpsum allowance of Rs.100.
